1. Turn your ear to the Lord Christ, the voice of God re-vealed in time.
2. Fix your hope on A - dam's root, the law of faith re-vealed from 'ore.
3. Rest your faith on Christ Je - sus, God's ef - fec - tual call in - to grace.
4. Sin has died in our High Priest, U - nit - ed with his death to sin.
5. Taste your faith in God's pure Lamb, for you his bod - y giv'n, blood shed.

All the saints since E - den have proved faith's life. Law of works, lack - ing Sa - voir, con - demns.
As the seed of wom - an to crush the head, con - quer sin, Sa - tan; jus - tice re - store.
Your new will drawn to him in Spir - it - power. Sa - voir's death, res - ur - rec - tion em - brace.
Bap - tized in - to death, raised to right - eous life, Not con - demned, law ful - fil - ling with - in.
His new cov - e - nant for - gives all your sins, With his vis - i - ble bod - y peace made.

6. Rest your faith in the true Son.

What from son - ship love sep - a - rates?

Though we groan in suff - ring for a - dop - tion,

We, with pa - tience, will ea - ger - ly wait.

7. Prove faith's fear in man - kind's Judge,

By his mer - cies be a live gift.

By the Spir - it's zeal be trans - formed to know

How to serve God and neigh - bor up - lift.

8. Stop your doubts in the Wise One,

His un - search - a - ble judg - ments and ways,

For from him and through him and to him be

All the glo - ry and hon - or al - ways.
